Hi Timothy,

How are you? Happy Spring semester!

I would like to work with you on bringing one of my classes for Lexis training this semester. Can you please let me know how to set that up?

Hope you are having a great week!

Hi Kristine,

Happy Spring Semester to you as well!

I'm doing great. Just trying to get back in the "swing of things."

The best way to request instruction for your class is to use our online form:

http://library.fullcoll.edu/faculty-test/spring-library-instruction-request-form/

Make sure to detail that the purpose of the course is for Lexis (now known as "Nexis Uni" training). If you would like for me to teach it, just add me as the "preferred librarian"

I will let our Instruction Librarian (Jill), who receives the electronic form and schedules the instruction sessions, that you are submitting this type of request.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns regarding the form and/or accessing Nexis Uni before the session.

Thanks,
Tim

Hi Prof. Dane,

This is Tim Ream contacting you—the Librarian who will be conducting the Library Instruction Session for your AJ220 course on the 23rd.

I know the instruction session will revolve mainly around using Nexis Uni, but I wanted to check-in with you and see if there were any specific assignments that your students will be working on related to finding information in the Library.

Also, if you could send me a syllabus for your course, this helps me get a feeling for your course objectives as a whole.

Thank you, and I look forward to seeing you and your students on the 23rd!

Thanks,

Tim Ream

Hi Tim,

Thank you so much for reaching out to me and for agreeing to train my class tomorrow.

In response to your questions, I do not have the students working on any particular projects. L I would like them to learn the basics of legal research and for them to be able to find legal opinions that explain the state of the law for any given issue. I also want students to learn as much about the capabilities of this new version of Lexis as possible.

I have attached a copy of my syllabus, but please do not feel obligated to gear your instruction toward this course.

Looking forward to tomorrow!!

Hi Kristine,

Thank you for the syllabus and additional information here.

For many of my Library Instruction Sessions this year I have been creating online course guides to accompany instruction.

It is not finished yet, but below is the url to the course guide for AJ 220:

https://fullcoll.libguides.com/AJ220_Dane_Ream_Spring_2018

Hopefully this will help with the instruction tomorrow, and provide something online for students to refer to following the instruction.

Thanks,

Tim Ream

Hi Prof. Dane,

Unfortunately I will need to stay home today with a sick baby. We will have to reschedule the library instruction session for a future date.

I apologize for the inconvenience.

Feel free to email me here or call me at 310-923-6334. I will call you later today just to confirm that you received this message.
