Discussions with Prof. Seidel Regarding Journalism 110H

Hi Prof. Seidel,

My name is Tim Ream and I will be the Librarian conducting the Library Instruction Session for your Journalism 110H course on Tuesday, March 20th.

I just wanted to touch base with you prior to this session to see if you had any specific instructions on what you would like for me to cover.

In the online form you filled out for the Library Instruction Session you mentioned that you might be able to provide some sample search topics that students will be researching.

If you get a chance, please forward me some of these topics and I will do my best to integrate them into the Library Instruction Session.

I'm looking forward to meeting with you and your students on the 20th!

Thanks,

Tim Ream

Hi,

YEah, you did the session last semester for us. This class I larger. I will have them doing a research assignment with the topic of violence in the media. President Trump met with video game developers about violence. People are discussing the violence in television and films leading to a culture that is more susceptible to violence. So, it's great timing. Plus, I know there is a ton of research on this topic (I researched it for an assignment in grad school).

Hope that helps.

Looking forward to it.

Jay

Sounds good Prof. Seidel. I will structure my Library Instruction Session around these themes.

Thanks,

Tim Ream

Hi Prof. Seidel,

Thank you for bringing your class over today for the Library Instruction Session. I apologize that I wasn't better prepared with Nexis Uni.

Below is a url to a course guide I'm building for a Paralegal Studies class (it's a work in progress). It contains some useful information on searching Nexis Uni.

In the future I can build one of these course guides specifically for your Journalism 110H classes (or any other class you are teaching).
