Library Resources for English 100

Prof. Peluso, Fall 2018, English 100

Key Websites

Library Website
https://library.fullcoll.edu

Library Catalog
http://fcclib.nocccd.edu/

Ask a Librarian
https://library.fullcoll.edu/ask-a-librarian/

Library Databases
https://fullcoll.libguides.com/az.php

Library Databases

Opposing Viewpoints

- Current and controversial social issues published in magazines, newspapers, reference and statistical sources, and primary documents.

JSTOR

- A database containing thousands of academic journals, books and other resources related to academic subjects in the humanities and social sciences.

Academic Search Complete

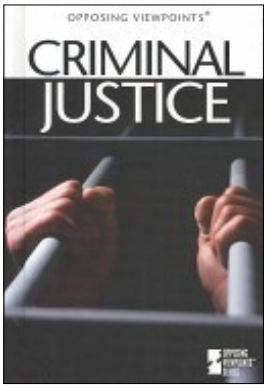

- Multi-subject database which contains indexing and abstracts for more than 13,000 journals, with full text for more than 9,000 of those titles. Full-text coverage in Biology, Chemistry, Engineering, Physics, Psychology, Religion & Theology, and more subjects.

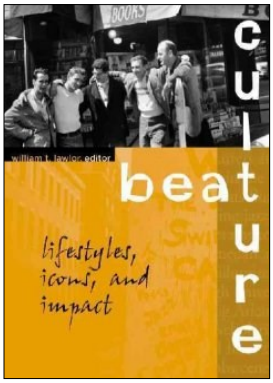

Books and eBooks

Reference Materials

Before researching a complex topic, it is a good idea to first gather some background information. We can locate this type of information using both print and electronic reference materials (Encyclopedias, Dictionaries, Almanacs, etc.). Below are some of the more commonly used reference resources at the Fullerton College Library.

- Reference books located on the 1st Floor
- Gale Virtual Reference Library
- Funk and Wagnall's New Word Ency. (through EBSCOhost)

Books and eBooks in the General Collection

Located on the 2nd Floor, the Library has thousands of books across numerous topics that are available for checkout. Likewise, the Library has access to thousands of eBooks that are available to students through our online catalog.

Newspapers and Magazines

Fullerton College students have access to thousands of newspapers, magazines and other news resources through our Library databases. Below are some of the more useful news databases for all topics.

- America's Historical Newspapers (historical news)
- Nexis Uni (current news)
- Newspaper Source Plus (through EBSCOhost)