ENGL 100 Activities

Start on the library homepage: library.fullcoll.edu

Activity 1

Working in a group of 2 or 3, perform a OneSearch for the U.S. Supreme Court case provided on the 3x5 card. Supply the information below: Author and title of one source on the Research Starter bibliography.

Author_____

Title_____

Activity 2

Working in your same group of 2 or 3, examine the Research Starter. Based on your examination, come up with a second search term for your U.S. Supreme Court case and list it below. The second search term you choose should be something that is central to the primary issues involved in the case and its impact on American society.

Second search term_____

Activity 3

Working in your same group of 2 or 3, use the Advanced Search feature and perform a search for your Supreme Court case and the second search term from Activity 2. (Remember the concept of idea boxes.) Select one result and supply the information below:

Author_____

Title_____

Activity 4

Working in your same group of 2 or 3, add an additional limiter to the search performed in Activity 3. Use one of the following: peer review, phrase searching, date of publication, academic journals. Select one result and supply the information below:

Author_____

Title_____

Activity 5

Working in your same group of 2 or 3, email the result you selected in Activity 4 to tream@fullcoll.edu Use your group number as the subject in the email. For example, the subject for the topic Group 1 would be Group 1. (Make sure to change the citation format to MLA before emailing)

Activity 6

Working in the same group of 2 or 3, locate the actual Supreme Court case listed on the index card using the Nexis Uni database. Remember to limit your search results to only “Cases” so that you can quickly find your specific case. Email the case to tream@fullcoll.edu . Use your group number as the subject in the email.